2006 Horizon Report Timeline

August 2005	- Develop the project description - Develop invitation list for Advisory Board - Extend invitations - Discovery research begins in preparation for October meeting - Supporting technologies identified and built out (del.icio.us site? web space? wiki? blog?)
September 2005	- Initial annotated listing ("Idea Bin" of 30-50 items) complete - electronic discussions around the initial list of 30-50 technologies
October 5, 2005	- Face-to-face Advisory Board meeting at Yale - Determination of key trends; categories
Mid-October, 2005	- "Short list" determined; one-page summaries compiled for each item
November 2005	- Final list determined by vote of Advisory Board - NMC staff draft the 2006 report
December 2006	- Report is piloted with potential audiences - Final review of 2006 Report by Advisory Board
January 2006	- Production and printing
January 29-31, 2006	- 2006 Report Released at ELI in San Diego